

TIMESPICKS

[MUSIC]

FABIAN THIBODEAUX

FRIDAY

Fabian Thibodeaux at The Grand Opera House of the South in Crowley

Born and raised in Church Point, Fabian Thibodeaux was inspired by classical music at a young age.

Since his junior year in high school, Thibodeaux has been composing original pieces. He's released many albums, including "Near the Edge of Light," a well-received debut that got marks for being one of the best Instrumental Jazz albums of 1990.

After being in and out of the scene, Thibodeaux has been working on a new album/vocal project under the name Isadar as well as working in Sony Records' vault and archives in New York.

Isadar's new album, "Reconstructed," was produced by Grammy-winning Will Ackerman. On Friday night, Isadar will perform at the Grand Opera House of the South in Crowley at 7 p.m.

Check out this week's Times of Acadiana for a full interview with the musician.